EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

On Tuesday 22 May 2018, the City of Adelaide endorsed its second consecutive Stretch Reconciliation Action Plan 2018-2021, launched on 28 May 2018 at Reconciliation SA's National Reconciliation Week Breakfast.

On 1 July 2018, the Stretch Reconciliation Action Plan 2018-2021 took effect, guiding a shared vision for delivery of meaningful reconciliation between the City of Adelaide and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) delivery is monitored internally by a Reconciliation Action Plan Team (RAPT) that meets quarterly. Updates provided at this meeting form the basis of this quarterly update report to the Reconciliation Committee, to Council and to Reconciliation Australia. Reconciliation Australia, the creator of the RAP tool and with whom the City of Adelaide Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 is registered, also monitor City of Adelaide Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 implementation via an annual progress report.

Implementation Progress of City of Adelaide Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 actions delivered between January and March 2019 is noted here.

DISCUSSION

1. On 29 November 2017, the City of Adelaide Reconciliation Committee commended the Stretch RAP creation process and strategic document to Council as a useful means of continuing to progress City of Adelaide's Reconciliation objectives [\[Link 1\]](#). Council instructed the administration to draft a new Stretch RAP 2018-2021 incorporating the ideas and opportunities obtained during the extensive community engagement process [\[Link 2\]](#). The City of Adelaide Reconciliation Committee continued to actively guide the drafting of the new Stretch RAP 2018-2021.
2. Between 12 December 2017 and 28 February 2018, the draft Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 was built and was informally reviewed by the City of Adelaide Reconciliation Committee, Council members, potential community partners and staff across the business. The draft City of Adelaide Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 was provided for Reconciliation Committee endorsement on 28 February 2018 and Council endorsement on 13 March 2018.
3. Reconciliation Australia was provided with the draft in March 2018 who conducted their own community consultation on the document. On 2 May 2018, Reconciliation Australia endorsed the City of Adelaide Stretch RAP 2018- 2021, describing the document as "strong", "wholistic", "ambitious" and "innovative".
4. On Tuesday 22 May 2018, City of Adelaide officially endorsed its second consecutive Stretch RAP 2018-2021 [\[Link 3\]](#).
5. The City of Adelaide's Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 builds on the legacy of previous City of Adelaide RAPs in guiding Council's vision meaningful reconciliation with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
6. The current City of Adelaide Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 has been acclaimed by members of local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and other stakeholders in enabling meaningful reconciliation outcomes in the City and more widely.
7. The City of Adelaide's Stretch RAP 2018- 2021 has 50 actions. Each has an officer of Council who, alongside their team and leaders, co- created the action including its timing, resourcing and integrated strategic alignment and who is responsible for its delivery.
8. Quarterly monitoring of delivery progress of the 50 Stretch RAP 18-21 actions is undertaken by the team of 37 RAP action holders or RAP Champions. Their updates form the basis of this report.
9. Between January and March 2019, a range of actions have been delivered and are captured in the Stretch Reconciliation Action Plan 2018- 2021 18/19 Q3 Implementation Progress Report [\[Link 4\]](#)
10. The City of Adelaide RAP champions commend this update to Reconciliation Committee and Council Members.
