Income

- Rundle Mall Levy income is favourable in comparison to the YTD budget as there have been no objections. This represents the $30k favourable variance
- Rundle Mall user charges are favourable to YTD budget
- Other income includes retail sales from the Visitor Information Centre $7k along with Adelaide Fashion Week income, which offsets some expenses in that activity.

Expenditure

Favourable expense variances are currently the result of timing and staff vacancies.

Variances and Budget Requests

Quarter 2 budget adjustments:

- Recognition of Rundle Mall prior year underspend of $176k and depreciation of $42k budgets
- Recognition of $85k income - $35k for Adelaide Fashion Week and $50k forecast for AEDA Summit ticket sales. This will then be offset by corresponding expenses, resulting in nil bottom line increase/decrease
- $41k for 1.0 FTE increase for the Economic Research & Data Analyst Graduate. 2-year Fixed Term Contract from January 2024 in line with City of Adelaide Graduate program.

Risks and Opportunities

- Continued macroeconomic trends such as rising interest rates and cost of living pressures create a subsequent impact on potential spend in city businesses
- With new office stock coming online, opportunity exists to increase investment attraction activity

NB: AEDA's strategic risks are included within the City of Adelaide's Strategic Risk Register, which is reported through the Strategic Risk and Internal Audit Group that then reports into the Audit and Risk Committee

Board and Advisory Committee Term Changes

Within quarter two recruitment was undertaken for a Board Member position in preparation for the conclusion of Manuel Ortigosa's term that expired in January 2024. Jim Kouts was recommended for appointment by the selection panel and the appointment was endorsed by Council on 12 December 2023.

The term of office for Eloise Hall, Dino Vryniotis, David West and Andrew Wallace for their positions on the Advisory Committee expired on 31 October 2023. Recruitment was undertaken and Lauren Giorgio and James Black were appointed to the Committee. Nikki Hamdorf was also appointed to the Committee via the vote of the collective Precinct groups as their representative on the Committee.

Key Achievements

ADL Fashion Week

The second ADL Fashion Week was held Friday 20 to Sunday 22 October 2023 with 33 events and 80 additional fashion-related experiences or offers. Tickets across AFW events reached 87.6% of capacity (1,720 / 1,964 tickets).

Of the 33 events, 21 were part of the citywide Associated Events Program – an initiative that created opportunity for city businesses to leverage the festival benefits. These events reached 78.6% of capacity with $44k generated in ticket sales.

Benefits included advantages beyond the festival period. 78.6% of surveyed respondents said that attending the event would increase their likelihood of shopping in the city, 83% said it increased their chances of engaging with the SA fashion industry and 82% agreed that it strengthened Rundle Mall's positioning as a place of fashion.

Industry participants believed participating increased awareness of their brand (73%) and increased business exposure/publicity (46%). 18% said they received bookings and 27% said it generated future leads. Following the event, three brands expressed interest in conducting a pop up in Rundle Mall.

Within Rundle Mall, the Gift with Purchase offer performed extremely well with 47.9% more customers visiting to take up the offer (3,076), 9.4% higher average spend per customer ($348) and 61.8% higher total spend recorded ($1,069,209) on receipts redeemed.

Rundle Mall Foot traffic over the weekend was up 9.7% on AFW 2022 weekend and market share was 6.1% up on benchmark for Oct 5.2%

Strategic Partnership Program

The 2023-24 Strategic Partnerships program aimed to support to initiatives that support growth oriented business in the city. The University of Adelaide/ThincLab, MTPConnect and South Start were awarded funds to deliver programs.

Throughout the quarter existing Strategic Partners delivered on the following achievements:
Renew Adelaide launched ten new ventures into vacant premises including Dulcie Vintage, Longplay Bistro and Frida las Vegas. 120 Grenfell St was offered as a new available site.

Adelaide Business Events supported Dreamtime, attended by 94 international business event planners, the Professional Organisers Association Conference, that was attended by more than 400 professional conference organisers, event planners and industry suppliers and hosted a Famil for the Direct Selling Association of Singapore to showcase Adelaide's best attractions and activities.

Festival City Adelaide hosted a leadership breakfast that informed stakeholders and government about the opportunities and challenges facing the festival sector and delivered a TV Commercial Campaign during ADL500 to cross promote the broader event calendar.

StudyAdelaide hosted their Christmas Garden party attended by over 400 international students, launched a new Accommodation Advisory Service for international students, visited Vietnam, Cambodia and India meeting with over 220 education agents and helped Adelaide host the Australian International Education Conference with over 1,700 delegates.

Christmas & Boxing Day in Rundle Mall

AEDA and City of Adelaide combined resources to deliver a new decorative, interactive city-wide experience called 'The Santa Course'. Nine giant inflatable illuminated, and bespoke Santa's were placed around the city, with 3 being located in Rundle Mall. Complementing the Santa Course in the Mall was the Santa Course Christmas trail, street entertainment and performances (including Australia Girls Choir and the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra) and extended Christmas trading hours.

Despite signs of slight reductions of foot traffic to the precinct in December (-2% in total traffic in December YoY) the foot traffic over the Christmas and Boxing Day period in relation to the activations was strong:

- The last Thursday before Christmas experienced total traffic 40% higher than the average of the four Thursdays before it and 28% higher than the average day of the month.
- On the same Thursday passerby traffic was 51% higher than the average of the four Thursdays before it and 41% higher than the average day of the month.
- Boxing Day total traffic was 26% higher than 2022.

WellFest Adelaide

WellFest Adelaide 2023 was delivered over the weekend of 06 –08 October 2023 and the program consisted of:

- Over 65 city-wide free and paid experiences as part of the city-wide activation
- WellFest Adelaide Amazing Race – 7 checkpoints around ADL CBD and finishing in Rundle Mall. Gawler Place activated with DJ, Cosi as the MC and goodie bag for each entrant.
- WellFest Adelaide B2B Breakfast presented by Showcase SA at the Hotel Grand Chancellor
- Vera Mai “Moon Feast” A place, taste and story of first nations foods and experience in partnership with Nature Festival at Carclew.

The event analysis further noted the potential for longer term impact in terms of:

- Benefits to organisations participating in the event with all operating participants indicating they were satisfied with the involvement in the event and 43% rating it as 10/10 in terms of beneficial outcomes.
- A community wellbeing impact that has longer term economic outcomes, with 92% of attendee respondents believing the event had had positive impact on their mental well being, 74% on their physical wellbeing, and 89% on their social wellbeing.

Longer term tourism outcomes –92% of survey respondents indicated that they would be likely (29%) or very likely (63%) to attend the event in 2024 should it be repeated.

BLACK FRIDAY CITY RULES

ExperienceAdelaide.com.au/BlackFriday

Black Friday – Citywide Campaign

Following a resolution of Council, a campaign promoting shopping in the city over the Black Friday period was delivered from 13-27 November, covering the fortnight leading up to and including Black Friday through to Cyber Monday.

Promotion highlighted the unique attributes of shopping in the city including longer trading hours, best bargains and greatest choice.

Advertising directed shoppers to a Shop Black Friday page on the Experience Adelaide website.

Results included:

- 16,900 landing page views from 13,600 visitors - the highest performing page across the site and 3 times higher than the next best performing page
- Radio/podcasts: 244,734 spots (2,000+ hrs of airtime)
- Ooh media screens: 180,980 spots (502 hrs of screentime)
- Search Engine Marketing & social media 146,300 impressions, 2,300+ clicks
- EDMs 120,200 article views / 10,300 clicks

Black Friday – Rundle Mall

To reinforce Rundle Mall's position as the premier destination to shop during Black Friday, a range of initiatives and activations were delivered including:

- Rundle Mall Concierge: a complimentary concierge service for shoppers to leave their bags and continue to shop
- Pit Stop Bar – a bar was set up under the Gawler Place Canopy with seating to allow shoppers to take a break
- Valet Service – a valet service was offered via a buggy on the Mall that was available at no cost to shoppers to get from one shop to the next, to their parking or public transport
- DJs – throughout the mall pop up DJs were scattered

Spend and foot traffic that compared 2022 to 2023 demonstrated:

- Foot traffic for Rundle Mall increased on Black Friday by 8.2%
- Rundle Mall had 12.5% of market share compared with the usual Friday average of 6.7%.
- Comparing Black Fridays across the years, market share increased from 12.3% in 2022 to 12.5% in 2023.

Australian Tourism Export Council

AEDA sponsored the Australian Tourism Export Council's 'Meeting Place' trade event in October. AEDA attended 24 business to business trade engagement appointments and break-out sessions. These appointments were with tourism product providers and tourism operators, which provided the opportunity to showcase the city as a Tourism destination and promote AEDA's roles in the city's visitor economy.

Delegate surveys indicated that 96% are very likely or likely to recommend South Australia as a tourism destination.

Data4Lunch

The most recent industry briefing, Data4Lunch was hosted on 8 November 2023, one day after the Reserve Bank of Australia's interest rate decision. The RBA's decision to lift interest rates tied into the theme of the "State of the Economy". Registrations booked out weeks in advance at 145 attendees.

Event speakers, including ANZ State General Manager for SA and the NT, Adele Fiene, and AEDA Economic Researcher, offered perspectives on Adelaide's economic status and trends compared to the broader national landscape. These insights sought to equip attendees to make informed decisions and position their organisation for success.

Frida Trail

AEDA established the Frida trail, engaging 26 city businesses that offered a Frida inspired experience or product during the exhibition (24 June – 17 Sept) as reported previously. Results of the trail are now available and through the campaign 11,000 visitors viewed the webpage and 725 leads were sent to participating businesses.

75% of participating businesses believed the trail was helpful in promoting their business and attracting more visitors to the city, and 100% wanted to be involved in future city trail initiatives. AGSA exceeded their target of 60,000 visitors, reaching 80,000.

Co-op Campaign with SATC

SATC's 'Travel Our Way' campaign launched in October 2023. Within the first two months there have been 5,321 page visits generated from AEDA's ads and 1,850 ATDW leads directly to city businesses.
