The Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA)

- The Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA) leads a dynamic and respected profession: creating great places to support healthy communities and a sustainable planet.
- We work together to create healthy communities, connected urban green infrastructure, and liveable, sustainable cities and regions.
- Our 2,800+ members are driven by AILA's values and our advocacy, driven by our Strategic Plan core pillars of Connection to Country, Climate Change and Gender Equity.
- The Australian Institute of Landscape Architects – South Australian Chapter (AILA SA) is committed to creating 'A greener, healthier, inclusive and climate resilient South Australia' which is further embedded in our advocacy approach.

AILA Values

"Our values shape everything we do from the ground up."

Adelaide Park Lands Management Strategy 2015-2025

- award winning
- opportunity to celebrate the success
- opportunity to reflect on the big moves and the city priorities
- Has it been thoroughly reviewed and key lessons and outcomes discussed?

Key issues facing Adelaide in a post-pandemic world

- increasing tree canopy loss in our cities
 - equitable and safe access to quality, local, and green parks and open spaces
 - equipping our cities, towns, and regions to be climate resilient in a warming, dry climate
 - supporting more people walking and cycling
 - authentic and effective reconciliation with First Nations people

Develop a concise Strategy

- clear hierarchy
- measurable objectives and actions
 - a 'strategy on a page' approach
- outward-facing community document

Strategic Plan Summary

Vision + Mission

The Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA) leads a dynamic and respected profession: creating great places to support healthy communities and a sustainable planet.

Strategic Values

Our values are imbued in everything we do and are the lens through which we operationalise this plan.

Strategic Pillars

1. Sustainable AILA

- AILA has a financially stable base from which to develop and meet our strategic objectives.
- AILA continues to review and improve its Governance framework
- AILA has a safe, supportive and growth oriented culture

2. Membership

- AILA understands and is responsive to the needs of its members
- The value proposition for AILA membership for all landscape architects is increasing
- AILA registration is sought after by landscape architects and valued by stakeholders

3. Education

- Australia's landscape architecture programs, and student and academic communities are sustained and bolstered
- AILAs CPD program meets the needs of a growing and increasingly complex profession

4. Advocacy

- The role of landscape architecture is understood and respected by all levels of Australian government

5. Profile

- The role of landscape architecture is understood and respected by built environment professionals and the communities in which we live

Develop a clear and concise Vision for the future of the Adelaide Park Lands

What is the future of the Park Lands?

Who are the Park Lands for?

Central Park: The People's Park

Millennium Park: Chicago's Front Yard

Gardens by the Bay: Singapore's City in a Garden vision
